For Children Ages 4 to 8

Learning Magazine 2008 Teachers' Choice
For Children's Book Award

"The rhythmic text is enticing, and the vividly creative illustrations could keep students busy for hours as they search for different objects related to odd and even numbers"- Teaching Children Mathematics, National Council of Teachers of Mathematics

"This is a great book. Together, One Odd Day and My Even Day introduce math for the early elementary set. They succeed in getting the kids excited about math. You can't ask for more than that." – The Reading Tub

"My Even Day will not only have readers in hysterics, but it will teach the important concept of even numbers." - Wee One's Children's Magazine

The even but odd fun continues in this delightful, rhythmic sequel to One Odd Day. This time, the young boy awakens to find that it is another strange day—now everything is even, and his mother has two heads! A trip to the zoo is dealt with in an odd, but even-handed manner. And, like its predecessor, children will spend hours looking for all the hidden objects in the incredible art.

My Even Day was vetted for accuracy by Kathy Skinner, recipient of the 2004 Presidential Award for Excellence in Mathematics Teaching for the State of Texas. Children, parents, and teachers will love the "For Creative Minds" educational section that includes:

- Even Numbers Have a Match
- Zero: An Even Number?
- Square Numbers: Odd or Even?
- Creative Sparks (Pairs)
- Defenders of the Truth: Math Riddles

There are also "Related Websites" and "Teaching Activities" on Arbordale Publishing's website, www.ArbordalePublishing.com, to help parents and educators expand the learning possibilities!

Also check out My Half Day for three quarters more fun!

About the Authors and Illustrator

Doris Fisher loves writing in verse. In addition to co-authoring My Even Day and One Odd Day, Doris is the author of Arbordale's Happy Birthday to Whooo? A Baby Animal Riddle Book and the newly released My Half Day. She has also written a biography of Kelly Clarkson and the soon to be published series, Grammar All-Stars: The Parts of Speech. Doris is a member of the Society for Children's Book Writers and Illustrators (SCBWI), and she and her husband live in the Houston area. They have two grown children.

Dani Sneed is a full-time engineer and mother, part-time writer and former substitute teacher. While teaching, she enjoyed explaining math in silly, memorable ways. In addition to One Odd Day, My Even Day, and the newly released My Half Day, Dani has written two bilingual books (Confetti Eggs / Cascarones and Punched Paper / Papel Picado), several badge books for the Boy Scouts of America and Ferris Wheel: George Ferris and His Amazing Invention. Dani lives in the Houston suburbs with her family and their dog, Muffin, and cat, Cupcake.

Karen Lee has a humorous imagination and it shows in her illustrations—these books are full of hidden odd and even items! In addition to One Odd Day, My Even Day, and the newly released My Half Day, Karen has written and illustrated ABC Safari for Arbordale. She is the recipient of the 2004 SCBWI Magazine Merit Award for Illustration for her work in Highlights for Children, and all of her illustrations are watercolor paintings on illustration board. She and her husband, also an illustrator, are raising their family outside of Raleigh, NC.
