"What can I say? I'm in love!!! Little Skink's Tail is, by far, one of the cutest books of all time. By and far, this is a story that inspires imagination all the while teaching a great lesson." — Ready Set Read Reviews

"This is a little gem of a book that accomplishes two things: it tells a wonderful story, and it helps parents explore the world of animals and their tails with their children. It's no wonder it has won several awards." - Ms. Bookish Blog

"I have to say, this is one of my favorite children's book. It is one that will be loved by children, as well as their parents/adults. Mixing a wonderfully written story, unforgettable pictures and fun education is a can't miss combination!" - Café of Dreams Blog

'Hmmm, I wonder how I'd look with a tail like that?'

While Little Skink hunts yummy ants for breakfast, she is suddenly attacked by a crow! But she has a trick to escape—she snaps off her tail, and it keeps on wiggling! Little Skink is happy to be alive, but she misses her bright blue tail. Little Skink's Tail follows Little Skink as she daydreams of having the tails of other animals in the forest. Readers will enjoy pretending with her, trying on tail after tail. The first is too puffy-fluffy, and another is too stinky! Then one day Little Skink gets a big surprise...and she doesn't have to dream of tails anymore.

Children, parents, and teachers will love the "For Creative Minds" educational section, which was vetted for scientific accuracy by Sherry Crawley, Director of Education, School and Family Programs at Zoo Atlanta. The section includes:

- Fun facts about why animals have tails
- "Mix-and-Match" tail activity
- "Footprint Map"

There are also "Related Websites" and "Teaching Activities" on Arbordale Publishing's website, www.ArbordalePublishing.com, to help parents and educators expand the learning possibilities!

About the Author and Illustrator

Janet Halfmann (Little Skink's Tail and Furs and Feathers) has been writing children's books for more than 20 years. Before becoming a full-time children's writer, she was a manager, editor and writer of coloring and activity books for Golden Books, the editor of a national children's magazine and a reporter for a daily newspaper. A member of the Society for Children's Book Writers and Illustrators, Janet has recently published Alligator at Saw Grass Road, Polar Bear Horizon, Dolphin's Rescue, and Pelican's Catch. Janet was inspired to write Little Skink's Tail, her 28th book, while researching for one of her other books, Nature's Predators: Lizards, and an article that she wrote for Ranger Rick, "Slinky Skinks." She was also inspired by her granddaughter, who enjoys playing dress-up. Discover more at <http://www.janethalfmann.com>.

Laurie Allen Klein has been a freelance artist for nearly 20 years. Over the last several years, she has worked as the on-staff artist for a marine park, where she does everything from painting life-size sea animal murals to illustrating children's activity books. In addition to illustrating Little Skink's Tail, Laurie illustrated Arbordale Publishing's If a Dolphin Were a Fish, Where Should Turtle Be?, and Furs and Feathers. Her other books include The Out to Pasture series, authored by Effie Wilder. Laurie and her family live in Northeast Florida. Visit her at <http://>
