Penelope Parker Loves Penguins...

Penelope Parker lives with penguins! Short ones, tall ones; young and old—the penguins are from all over the Southern Hemisphere including some that live near the equator! Do the penguin antics prove too much for her to handle? Children count and then compare and contrast the different penguin species as they learn geography. (Ages 4-9)

For Creative Minds

Teachers and parents will love the educational section, which includes the following activities:

- Compare and Contrast: Penguin Adaptations
- Penguins of the World: True or False?
- Hands On: How Tall are Penguins?

Plus, 60-70 pages of cross-curricular Teaching Activities and three Interactive Reading Comprehension and Math Quizzes on The Penguin Lady's homepage (www.SylvanDellPublishing.com) to help parents and educators extend the learning possibilities.

How To Schedule:

1. Coordinate with other classes (or schools or libraries), and decide what day works best.
2. Contact author directly to schedule date, time and details.
 - Carol Cole, cbcole@aol.com
3. Send letter home to parents announcing the author visit and offering them the opportunity to order autographed books for their children. (Form letter enclosed!)
4. Preorder books.
 - Coordinate book sales with author.

Carol A. Cole has worked with young children in schools for about 30 years as a pediatric physical therapist. Carol started writing “scripts” for a favorite TV show when she was ten years old and hasn't stopped writing since. She's the author of numerous articles and short stories found online and in anthologies. This is her debut picture book. Carol based this story on one of the teachers with whom she works—the original Penguin Lady. Penguin mouse pads, puzzles, wall decorations, and inflatable penguins fill the Penguin Lady's classroom, leading Carol to wonder what would happen should real penguins move in. Carol and her family live in Northern Virginia. Visit her website at www.carolacole.com.
